KING FERDINAND GOES TO FRONT

Assists Bulgarian Artillery In Battles Before Stacin

OPEN WAY BY VICTORY

Serbians Win Advantage at One Point, But Pushed Back by Teutons at Other Places.

Bucharest, Oct. 22—Though they admit the main Austro-German advance is still progressing, the Serbian have repulsed the invaders near Trnowisizi and south of Belgrade, according to advices from the fighting zone today.

In the Trnowsizi section, south of Pojarevac, the Serbs are said to have made a fierce counter-attack, inflicting 8,000 losses, killed and wounded, on the German forces, which were compelled to retreat toward Semandria.

To the westward a German division advancing from Belgrade on Leskovac is said to have been flanked by the Serbian artillery, losing a third of its strength.

The bulk of the Austro-German army rolled slowly but steadily south along the Belgrade Constantinople railroad, and through the Morava valley.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 22. — King Ferdinand has gone to the front, where he assisted in the artillery battles before Stacin.

The capture of this position opens the way to Kumanovo.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—The Austro-German army of invasion in Serbia is pushing back the Serbians over the entire front, although the Teutonic advance is slow. The War Office states that the Serbians have driven out of the strongly fortified positions near Ripanj. The Bulgarians also have made a further advance.

Paris, Oct. 22.—An official statement issued at Nish says that the Serbian Army is now menaced seriously. The Serbian War Office says the railroad line to Saloniki has been cut in two places.

London, Oct. 22.— The German armies, which for nearly 15 months have been continuously fighting on one front or the other, are now on the offensive at three widely separated points—against Riga and Dvinsk in Serbia and in the Champagne district of France.

In the two former places they continue to make progress, but against the French their attacks, delivered to the east of Rhemis, met with a complete repulse, as did those of previous days.

While at was expected that the Austro-German onslaught in the north would be the most formidable, as a matter of fact the Bulgarian attacks against the Serbians through the valleys from the east are proving the most dangerous. It is now definitely settled that the Bulgars have cut the Saloniki-Nish Railway to the north of Varanja, thus driving a wedge between the main Serbian army and the Anglo-French forces which landed at Saloniki.

There is another railway, which branching off at Uskup, runs up the western side of Serbia, but it is a considerable way around and, besides, another Bulgarian army, which is now approaching Kumanova, is threatening the junction at Uskup.

AGAINST TRIAL BY PULPIT

Claim That Stough Injunction is Unprecedented.

Lebanon, Pa., Oct. 22.—President Judge Henry yesterday heard argument for and against District Attorney Adams' motion to make permanent a temporary injunction against Rev. Dr. Henry Stough, evangelist, to prevent his preaching on "Who Murdered Cy Miller?"

Attorney H. J. Schools, for Dr. Stough, argued that there was no precedent or justification for the writ. Prosecutor Adams urged it on the ground that John Miller, alleged murderer of his son Cyrus, should not be tried in the pulpit, but before a jury.

EUROPEAN COLONIES

Former U. S. Minister to Argentina Says, They Should be Ceded to His Country.

Buffalo, Oct. 22.—The time is ripe for the United States to ask European countries to relinquish possession of their colonies in the Western Hemisphere, in the opinion of Charles H. Sherrill, former United States Minister to Argentina, who delivered a remarkable address along this line before the University of Buffalo, Wednesday.

"It is very doubtful if ever again the United States will be in a better condition to ask favors of Europe than it is at present," said Mr. Sherrill, in referring to the fact that European nations were seeking financial assistance in this country as never before, and he declared the United States owed it to her sister Republics to ask Europe "to release to the sovereigny of the peoples themselves all colonial territory in the Western Hemisphere."

The speaker did not make it entirely clear whether he would include Canada in the bargaining for independence, saying only: "Canada can have her independence whenever she likes it, but continues her connection with the British Empire by her own volition." Mr. Sherrill spoke more particularly of freedom of the Guianas, British Honduras and such European colonies.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 22.—Official Weshington was much interested in the remarks at Buffalo of Charles H. Sherrill, former American Minister to Argentina. Officials who read his speech doubted, however, that European nations having possessions in the Western Hemisphere would look with favor upon a plan such as suggested by Mr. Sherrill. None seemed to agree that the time was ripe for the United States to request the European nations to relinquish their possessions.

U. S. TO END RAIDS

Stern Measures to Stamp Out Lawlessness on Mexican Border.

Another regiment of infantry was ordered today to Brownsville, Tex. by Secretary of War Garrison to reenforce General Funston's border patrol. The Twenty-eighth Infantry was ordered from Jacksonville, Fla. to Galveston.

The Twenty-third Infantry was the last of the Texas City garrison, and its departure for Brownsville indicates the seriousness with which the War Department regards the recent border raids. Because it is necessary to have a regiment in reserve, the Twenty-third Infantry was ordered taken from Jacksonville where target practice was in progress, to have a regiment at the Texas City reserve post.

Secretary Garrison gave the Department of Justice a complete report on the two last bandit raids and asked the department to have its secret service agents assist in stamping out the outlaw bands.

Several drastic measures are under consideration by the War Department general staff and Secretary Garrison to stamp out lawlessness on the Mexican border.

The last raid, in which three American soldiers were killed and eight wounded, near Brownsville following closely on the attack upon a train in the same vicinity, has convinced army officers that harsher means are necessary to cope with the Mexican raiding bands.

Establishment of an army secret service corps to get information regarding the bandits was seriously considered today. Gen. Funston will probably be given authority to employ such detectives. The Department of Justice agents will also aid in tracing the bandits.

Another drastic measure considered is declaration of a "military zone" immediately along the border for government by military court-martial for summary trial and punishment of raiders.

COMPLETION OF LEE'S STATUE

Sculptor Ends Work Upon Equestrian Figure of Virginian

GOVERNOR VIEWS IT

Richmond, Oct. 22—With a sigh of relief, F. William Sievers, the noted sculptor, yesterday laid down his tools and surveyed the finished product of his hand, the equestrian statue of General Robert E. Lee, which will surmount the monument to be erected on the field of Gettysburg by the State of Virginia to commemorate the heoric deeds of her sons. The task has taken three years.

The work was completed by the sculptor yesterday, and was viewed today by Governor Stuart, members of the monument commission and Confederate leaders of Virginia. On Saturday and Sunday afternoons, between 3 and 6 o'clock the general public will be admitted to the studios at Forest Hill, to see the noble work of art; but this will be their last opportunity, as work preparatory to casing it in bronze will start on Monday morning.

Mr. Sievers's design for the monument was accepted from among forty or more offered by leading sculptors. He immediately moved his studios to Richmond and started the work, first completing a beautiful group, which will occupy the base of the pedestal on which the equestrian statue will stand. This group was cast in bronze two years ago and accepted by the monument commission. The pedestal has been constructed, and all that now remains to be done is to mold the big figure and place it in its position. This however, will take more than six months.

The figure of General Lee, which is one and three-quarters time life size, is mounted on a horse, which, while standing in repose; has its nostrils slightly distended and its ears alertly turned. The great chieftain is seated firmly in the saddle in one of his characteristic poses. Hat in hand he is looking calmly, but steadily ahead. Except for grim determination in every line of the face, the figure is a singularly peaceful one.

In his conception of General Lee the sculptor has borne in mind the action of the Southern commander in reviewing the famous charge of Pickett's men at Gettysburg. It is related that Lee was standing talking with his staff when informed that the charge was about to start. He calmly mounted and leisurely walked his horse to the brow of an eminence from which he had a clear view of the field. So close was he to the firing line that his officers had great difficulty in persuading him to abandon the danger spot. The monument will stand practically on the identical ground.

The equestrian statue is fourteen feet in height and nine feet in length. It will rest o a pedestal twenty two feet in height, formed of North Carolina granite. So immense is this pedestal, that its two stones weigh twenty tons each. Across the front of one and directly over the symbolical group will be the inscription, "Virginia to Her Sons at Gettysburg."

The group is one of the most unique features of the monument. Instead of the conventional figures Mr. Sievers has endeavored to put action into his work, and while all three branches of the service are represented, there is more than a suggestion of warfare in the group. A shattered cannon, broken wheel, knapsack, swab and hat indicate that the spot has been the scene of a fierce engagement. Seven figures comprise the group, two being boys, one bugler, or artillery, and the other, mounted, a standard-bearer, holding the State flag of Virginia. The other figures suggest the farmer, professional man and machanic, all comrades in arms.

The Virginia monument will stand on Confederate Avenue, near the spot from which General Lee watched Pickett's grand sweep up the hill.

The work was authorized by the State of Virginia, and it will cost about $48,000.

DEMOCRATS TO CAUCUS.

Program Backed by President Will Be Crystallized Into Administration Bill.

Washington, Oct. 22. — President Wilson had a conference today with Senator John W. Kern, of Indiana, majority leader of the Senate, on preparedness. Early next week he will have his second conference with Chairman James Hay, of the House Committee on Military Affairs. The object of these two important interviews is to arrange for party caucuses in both the Senate and House at which the administration's national-defense plan will be adopted as a Democratic policy.

The plan for an adequate navy and a measure of increase in the army being backed by the President and his Cabinet is to be crystallized into an administration bill. "King Caucus" will be invoked to tie the hands of the opposition within the party. To those who are supporting his program, the President has outlined the methods by which he expects to put his legislation through Congress in the face of determined opposition.

The President realizes the strength of the "little-navy" men and the small-army advocates in his own party. It is his purpose to neutralize that opposition by appealing to their patriotism to country, their loyalty to his leadership, and then place the seal of the caucus on the bill and force it through.

The will of the caucus in both houses is supreme, and the President has been informed by his lieutenants that with a caucus decree and Republican aid his program will be agreed to in both houses, but only after a stubborn fight by some of the most influential Democrats in both bodies back of whom will stand former Secretary of State Bryan.

Majority Leader Kern, who was at the White House today, said that in all its essentials, particularly with respect to the navy, he would support the President's national-defense program. He declined to go into particulars. This statement was accepted as an assurance that it was not the intention of Senator Kern to line up with Mr. Bryan. Senator Tillman, Chairman of the Naval Committee, has strongly indorsed the naval plan, and Chairman Chamberlain of the Senate Military Committee, has given his cordial approval to the Garrison plan for a better and stronger army and the creation of a substantial army reserve.

A big fight is expected by the President, notwithstanding the approval of these leaders, Senator Kern is opposed to any considerable expansion in the army, and Majority Leader Claude Kitchin, in the House who succeeds to Oscar Underwood's mantle, is opposing both army and naval expansion. The President today, however, showed that he understands the situation, and is preparing for the fight. His first general engagement with his opponents will be in caucus.

COLLEGE GIRLS AS NEMESIS

Poses as Keeper of Disorderly House to Round Up White Slavers.

New York, Oct. 22.—How a Bryn Mawr College graduate and student at schools in Dresden, Germany, pursued her work in sociology to the extent of posing as a disorderly housekeeper so as to help the New York police round up a gang of white slavers was told to Judge Mulqueen and a jury in General Sessions yesterday by a woman who gave her name in Court as "Anna Smith." When asked by Caeser Barre, attorney for Ralph Guarno, the defendant, to give the name of her husband, she replied in a voice barely audible that she is the wife of Joseph A. Bryant. He is said to be connected with a Boston firm dealing in chemicals. She said her home is in West Newton, Mass., and that just as soon as her work is completed here she will return to her family.

Joseph Spota and George Spica, two of the white slavers who were rounded up through her efforts, have pleaded guilty. The third, Ralph Guarno, who is alleged to have received $10 for one of the five girls purchased by the slavers.

COURTING BALKANS.

Every Belligerent Striking to Impress Wavering States Which of the Warring Nations to Join.

London Oct 22—The German armies which for nearly 15 months have been continuously fighting on one front or the other, are now on the offensive at three widly separated points against Riga and Dvinsk, in Servia and in the Champagne district of France.

Petrograd, Oct. 22—An important Russian success in the region of Baranovichi, resulting in the capture of several German positions, 3552 men and 10 machine guns and one piece of artillery, is announced by the War Office. Baranovichi is in the central portion of the Russian line to the north of the Pripet River.

Berlin, Oct. 22 The German advance on the Russian Baltic port of Riga, for possession of which a great battle has been under way for several weeks, has been carried forward further. The War Office reported today that Field Marshal von Hindenburg's army had occupied the bank of Dvina River northeast of Mitau, from Borkowitz to Bersemuenbe.

Russian reports of successes on the central and southern end of the line received partial confirmation in today's German statement. German forces on the Styr were compelled to retreat losing a cannon.

Paris, Oct 22—Following their futile bombardment, to the east of Rheims, the Germans renewed their attacks in this region, according to an announcement made by the French War Office. In spite of a very violent preparatory artillery fire, they again were checked and cut down by the fire of the French artillery and machine guns. They did not succeed in winning a single position in the French first line trenches.

Benjamin Shreve, 65 Shoots Down Katherine Kuffler, 30 in Store

Washington, Oct. 22—Three-year-old Jimmie Kuffler was the sole witness today of the murder of his mother, Mrs. Katherine Kuffler, thirty years old, and the suicide of Benjamin Shreve, sixty-five years old, in the little store which his parents conducted at New Cut and Conduit roads Washington.

When Mrs. B. L. Minor of 4800 Conduit road, visiting the store to purchase groceries shortly after 10 o'clock, asked the little boy, whom she found sitting dazed in the back room of the store, where his wother was, he lisped:

"Mamma's killed.

The actual circumstances of the double crime may never be known. So far, the police have found no one who heard the shots or could fix the time, when two lives were ended in the little grocery with any more accuracy than that it occured some time between 10 and 10:15 o'clock.

SCHOOL HEAD RESIGNS

Chicago, Oct. 22—Displaying no more sentiment than they would over the receipt of an order for a batch of pencils, the trustees of the school board learned of Mrs. Ella Flagg Young's resignation as superintendent of schools today. It will take effect December 8.

Mrs. Young's letter was read, referred to a committee, and a trustee resumed her interrupted argument.

Constant heckling by the trustees was given as Mrs. Young's reason for resigning. She will enter the writing field.

"If there is one prayer that I would utter it is that the members of this school board may at the age of seventy be in entire possession of their mental and physical faculties," said Mrs. Young, in commenting on her action. Mrs. Young will be seventy-one years old her next birthday.

Fearing to face an operation Mrs. Jeanne Smith, 43 years old, a widow of New York, chose death instead and committed suicide early yesterday by jumping from the fourth floor of the New York Infirmary for Women and Children at 321 East Fifteenth street.

New war taxes amounting to $12,000,000 a year are contained in a government decree issued in Rome last night. Profits of business concerns will be heavily taxed and the telegraph rates have been raised. Persons exempted from military duty must pay $120 a year.

Women's clothing is being seen less and less in England as a result of the entrance of women in the field of what was men's work before the war. Women farm workers, letter-carriers, porters, munition factory workers, bus conductors and chauffeurs may be seen any day garbed in regulation trousers. Suffragettes are advocating the use of men's attire among women.

More than 200 delegates from many states gathered yesterday in San Francisco for the opening session of the twenty-second annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The convention will continue four days. The program for the first day included the annual "memorial hour" in the Mississippi Building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition a time of tribute to those members who have died since the last convention. A successor to the president Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stevens, of Brandon, Miss., who has completed the customary two terms in office probably will be named today.

"I firmly believe the Government will collapse," was the answer given by John Annan Bryce, M. P., when his views on the cabinet crisis were sought, in London yesterday. "The trouble is not confined to any particular spot; the structure will fall of its own weight," Mr. Bryce continued. "It has been top-heavy from the time the present cabinet was formed."

GRAND PARADE CLOSES REUNION

Confederate Veterans, Sons and Daughters Join in the March

LINE EXTENDS A MILE

Pageant Biggest Feature of Annual Meeting of Wearers of the Gray in the South.

Fredericksburg, Va., Oct. 22—The grand parade of the Grand Camp Confederate Veterans and Sons of Confederate Veterans of the State took place yesterday starting at 3 o'clock, Major T. D. Coghili, of Bowling Green, was grand marshal and W. S. Embrey, of Fredericksburg, chief marshal.

The parade was over a mile long, was witnessed by a great throng of people and was of the greatest interest. It was a success in every particular.

One of the features of the reunion which appealed strongly to the veterans as well as the women attending the reunion, including the sponsors and maids, was the visit in automobiles to the battlefields on Wednesday afternoon and the luncheon served at the old Chancellor House on the Chancellorsville battlefield, in Spotsylvania county, ten miles from Fredericksburg, The luncheon was a most excellent one served by the Daughters of the Confederacy of Spotsylvania county. It required more than 200 automobiles to convey the visitors to the battlefields. The slight rain of the morning laid the dust and made the trip exceedingly pleasant.

The reunion came to a close last night, with a brilliant ball at the Opera House, in which the sponsors, maids of honor, visiting women, Daughters of the Confederacy, Confederate Veterans and Sons of Confederate Veterans took part.

The last business session adjourned at noon. J. Taylor Stratton, of Richmond, offered a report of the finance committee which provides that dues of each member of camps shall be 10 cents and no camp will be entitled to representation in the Grand Camp until all dues are paid. This was adopted.

The Sons of Confederate Veterans held their final business session yesterday.

Election of officers resulted as follows: Dr. J. Garnet King, Fredericksburg, grand commander; division commanders; First Brigade, B. S. Herndon, of Portsmouth; Second Brigade, H. G. Southall, Petersburg; Third Brigade, Don P. Halsey, Lynchburg; Fourth Brigade, M. D. Cary, Clifton Forge; Fifth Brigade, J. G. Gravely, Woodstock.

TEUTONS OPTIMISTIC.

Within Next Few Weeks Believe They Will Have Abundance of Food Raw Materials.

Berlin, Oct. 22. — Within two months Germany will "really begin" to fight the British, a high official of the kaiser's foreign office told me.

It was on the success of the Teutonic Balkan campaign, with the opening of a source of admittedly much needed supplies, that he was counting when he spoke.

"In five more weeks," he said, "a way will be opened through Serbia, to Bulgaria and Turkey, where great quantities of food and raw materials are stored.

"Within two months we will have all the Anatolian cotton and wool we require, so that we will not need an American supply.

"When we have established communication with Bulgaria and Turkey war against England really will begin.

"We have enough of France and Russia already to guarantee satisfactory peace terms with these two.

"Success in the Balkans will mean the menacing of the British empire. Once the way to Constantinople is open to us, we can strike at Suez and Egypt.

MOORE WILL NOT RUN

Present Representative of Alexandria District Will Have no Opponent

R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax Courthouse, will not be a candidate against Congressman Charles C. Carlin, of the Eighth District, he has advised the correspondent of a Richmond paper in Washington.

Several months ago it was said that Mr. Moore, was seriously considering the matter and several of his friends expressed their belief that he had almost decided to make the race against Mr. Carlin.

Mr. Moore, when asked in regard to the rumor, said he had not yet reached any decision, but would advise the correspondent when he made up his mind. Accordingly he stated yesterday that he could not see his way clear to being a candidate and should be disregarded as a possibility.

There is no likelihood of any one entering the arena against Mr. Carlin, as it seems apparent to the politicians of the Eighth District, that Mr. Carlin is serving his constituents so well, his defeat is almost impossible. Mr. Carlin will come up for election next November and in case of opposition there will be a primary held next summer.

JUVENILE FOOTPAD

Royal B. Deming, 16 years old, who says he left his home in North Cambridge, Mass., early in September to "beat his way" south, was arrested in Washington yesterday on the charge of grand larceny and on suspicion of being the youth who held up Miss Mary Jacobson, 18 years old, in woods near her home in Ammendale, Md., Sunday afternoon.

Deming, the police allege, confessed that on Wednesday he went to the home of C. W. Oliver in Barcroft, Va., to ask for food. The police say the boy found that all occupants of the house were away and entered, finding $160 on the dining-room table. It is charged the boy pocketed the money.

Deming was delivered into the custody of Deputy Sheriff Harry Palmer, of Alexandria County, to answer for the Barcroft theft.

Deming admitted that he was walking through the woods toward Washington Sunday, when he met Miss Jacobson, the police allege. The boy said, according to the police, that he pointed a revolver at the girl and took $5 from her handbag. The police say the youth verified Miss Jacobson's story that he returned the $5 when Miss Jacobson wept and said she needed the money, as she was "only a working girl."

REACH AN ADJUSTMENT

Retail Merchants of City Meet and Consider Omitted Licenses Taxes.

An agreement was reached this morning between James R. Caton and H. Noel Garner, attorneys for practically all of the retail merchants of Alexandria, and W. N. Lipscomb, examiner of records of the sixteenth judicial circuit, in reference to the payment of omitted license taxes.

By the adjustment the merchants will pay a portion of the licenses which have been assessed by the examiner. The amount to be paid will be different in the case of each merchant, the reduction in some cases being larger than others. While the local board of taxation had agreed not to take up omitted taxes at the present time, the retail merchants preferred to settle the matter with the examiner now. The local board agreed to the figures which had been reached by the attorneys for the retail merchants and the examiner.

The decision to come to an adjustment with the examiner was determined by the retailers who met last night in the chamber of the common council. J. W. Monroe, president of the Retail Merchants' Association, presided. The meeting was attended by about fifty merchants.

MISSING BRIDEGROOM

Young West Virginian Disappears After Reaching Washington.

Mrs. Walter Schultz, a 17 year old bride of a few days, is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Russell, 817 Sixth street northwest, Washington, almost distracted because of the disappearance of her husband 28 years old.

The couple were married in Charleston, W. Va., near where they live Monday, arriving in Washington on their bridal trip Tuesday morning and renting a room for one week from Mr. and Mrs. Russell.

Schultz went out, saying he would return in a little while, and was not seen at the house again.

Mrs. Schultz told Mr. Russell that she had known her husband and his people all her life, and that they had been schoolmates, their families living near each other. She said her husband had with him when he left her more than $100.

The young bride is so frightened that she cannot be induced to go out, believing that something will also happen to her. She was reared in the country and is unfamiliar with city life. Mrs. Schultz said her husband intended to wire home for an addition $100, as he had found the cost of living in the city so high he feared he would not have sufficient funds to meet their expenses.

It was an even fight all the way through though the A. H. S. outplayed their opponents and had the game ended just a few seconds earlier than it did, it would have resulted in a tie, for each club had made a touchdown apiece in the first quarter.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

Another Large Congregation Last Night in First Baptist Church.

There was another large congregation present last night at the union services held in the First Baptist Church. The sermon was preached by Rev. L. M. Ferguson, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church. His text was, Joshua's call to God's ancient people—"Choose you this day whom ye will serve." He said God calls men and women today to make a choice of service. If we fail to choose Christ we really decide against Him. The speaker declared this choice is necessary, free, personal, and should be immediate. He urged those present who were failing to decide, to make the wiser and better choice at once. The congregation gave close attention. Services again this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

NO ATTACKS ON GOMPERS

Davison Denies as Absurd Report of Alleged Disloyal Speech

Richmond, Oct. 22—Emmett C. Davidson, former president of the Virginia Federation of Labor, who is charged by P. F. Richardson, president of the American Federation of Railroad Workers, with having denounced Samuel Gompers and the American Federation of Labor in a speech at Hyde Park, Mass., last May, left for Washington yesterday on business in connection with his office as organizer of the International Association of Machinists.

Friends of Mr. Davidson say that he pronounces the charges made by Richardson absolutely untrue. He explains Richardson's attack on him by declaring that the head of the railroad men's organization and the official journal of the American Federation of Railroad Workers in which Richardson's article appeared, are both hostile to Gompers and the Federation of Labor. Richardson, it is alleged, belongs to the group of union labor leaders who became prominent in the International Union of Workmen of the World after withdrawing from the American Federation of Labor. The two organizations have only the general principal of trade unionism in common and are seperate and distinct as working bodies.

Davidson declares Richardson's charge of disloyalty is too ridiculous to dignify with a reply. He admits that he made a speech at Hyde Park but says that he is misquoted by Richardson in the article published in the organ of the railroad men.

TURKS AND ARMENIANS

Charges and Counter-Charges Made By Both Factors

The estimate is made by the Armenian newspaper Mshak that, of the 1,200,000 Armenian inhabitants of Turkey before the war, there remain not more than 200,000. This residue, the Mshak says, may disappear before the end of the war on account of the Turkish policy of extermination.

Washington, Oct 22—Though the Turkish government has not yet made any satisfactory response to the friendly representations of Ambassador Morganthau with regard to the treatment of Armenians in Turkish territory, the Turkish Embassy yesterday made public a statement charging Armenians with atrocities against Turks.

Crimes against women, wives of peaceful Turks, are alleged. It is charged that in the village of Izensour all the males were shut up in a barn and the women outraged. At another village, it is charged, a number of Turkish women threw themselves over a cliff and perished rather than permit themselves to be captured by the Russians, Armenians and Greeks.

A number of Turks were beheaded by Armenians at Dauzcte, it is charged. At the village of Karnavas, it is alleged, a mob of Greeks and Armenians killed twenty-five Turks by torture, afterward cutting their bodies to pieces and carrying them about the town. The same mob, it is charged proceeded to the next village and killed five men of more than 70 years of age by cutting their bodies, smearing the wounds with kerosene and burning the victims alive.

BELIEVES GERMANY WILL WIN

Uncertainty of Action of Greece and Bulgaria Due to Awe of Germany

London. Oct. 22—Despite Great Britain's offer to cede Cyprus to Greece, the situation at Athens, according to a dispatch to the Daily Telegraph, continues to be very uncertain. Dr. Dillon telegraphs from Rome:

"The uncertainty of Greece and Roumania is due to dynastic predilections, to a general awe of Germany and to the belief that the allies will be worsted in the end. The former premier of Roumania has just returned from Switzerland, and has assured the Roumanian press that the central empires will surely score a final victory."

Dr. Dillon advises the allies, who have it in their power, to exert pressure on Greece which will outweigh all that Germany, Austria and Turkey can devise.

"In dealing with Greece and Roumania," Dr. Dillion concludes, "It is know what to prepare for if the unexpected should happen."

Greeks in London are jubliant over the offer of Cyprus. E. M. Rodocanachi, an influential member of the Greek colony, says the offer will go a long ways to bring the doubting Thomases in Athens over to the side of the allies.

EUROPE GROWING ANXIOUS

Governments Making Inquiries About Payment of Claims.

Washington, Oct. 22.— European governments are making inquiries of the United States as to what assurances have been given by the newly recognized Mexican Government with respect to foreign claims. It is generally understood that the powers of Europe will follow the lead the American republics in recognizing Carranza, but it became known that, before taking the step, they want to know more specifically what settlement is to be made of the huge claims growing out of the revolutionary conditions of the last few years.

General Carranza has decided to appoint several mixed commissions, to be composed of representatives of the interested nations, in order that an equitable settlement may be reached. The question of claims is related so closely to the financial rehabilitation of Mexico that it is unlikely that the United States Government will press its claims until Mexican credit has been firmly re-established and arrangements made for payment of the southern republic's national obligations.

As yet no move has been made by the Carranza Government to obtain a loan, but it is considered certain that, in view of the condition of European markets, funds with which to finance the new government will be sought in the United States. The sum needed has been variously estimated from $100,000,000 to $300,000,000. It is not believed in well-informed quarters here that any loan will be negotiated, however, until a new Congress has been elected and the constitutional order begun, probably six months hence.

Official evidence of the recognition of the Carranza Government was given by the State Department today in the delivery to Eliseo Arredondo of an invitation asking the United States of Mexico to send delegates to and participate in the International Scientific Congress here next December.

"SHORT AND SIMPLE ANNALS OF THE POOR.

Pathetic stories of the lives of girls who dwell in tenements and gain a precarious livelihood in the garment trade were unfolded this week before the Aldermanic committee of Chicago investigating the garment workers' strike and its cause. Manufacturers ignored invitations to be present.

Tears came to the eyes of some of the girls as they told of their struggle for existence. The normal earnings of the girls, testimony showed, were $5 a week, and only supreme efforts, working from daylight to dark, without lunch, would bring in $8.

One young woman said that in dull times she had earned as low as 78 cents a week. Another testified that the girls have to buy their own needles. Three hundred girls, she said, had to use the same roller towel.

One young woman said that she worked from 7.30 a. m. to 5:45 p. m. and that she and 13 other girls engaged on bastings were able to make $8 a week by giving up half of the lunch hour to work. All of the witnesses complained of harsh treatment from foremen, mostly in the way of abusive language. One of the complainants said:

"I pay $5 a month for my room and my sister charges me 15 cents a meal for what I eat. I am often hungry, but I can't afford to spend more."

A young woman, who earns $4 a week related that she keeps within her income by walking two miles to and from work and spending only 25 cents a day for food.

One girl told of a system of fines. If damage is done to a garment, the offender is fined $1.50 or $2. If the offender is not known all are assessed 25 cents apiece.

People who reside in small cities and who occasionally visit the larger centres are often thrown into soliliquies while standing in front of large hotels watching the hastening steps of young women with pinched faces and faded garments as they pass hurriedly late in the evening making their way to their homes often miles away on the suburbs. Most of them would patronize the street cars were they able. The above shows the silent suffering of thousands of such who barely exist on the pittances they receive for their labor while surrounded by evil influences and temptations to go wrong.

EXECUTION OF MISS CAVELL.

The execution of Miss Cavell in Relgium by the Germans has caused the greatest indignation in England, where she was born and reared. It was charged that she was instrumental in aiding prisoners to escape, and the Teutons regarded this as a sin unto death. Despite the appeals of the American Minister and other representative people, Miss Cavell was placed before a firing squad and was shot to death.

Ceremonies in respect to her memory were held yesterday at Charing Cross, London, and wreaths placed at the foot of the Nelson column. The large crowd which gathered were filled with exasperation at the untimely end of the English nurse, and there was ag boom in recruitin throughout the city.

The fate of Miss Cavell, daughter of a prominent English minister, is sad, and her untimely end is regretted by many in all parts of the world But without offering anything in where the English language is spoken extenuation of the act of the Kaiser, who held the fate of the young woman in his hands, we would merely suggest, "Let us not forget."

Five hundred years ago, when the British had overran and taken possession of a part of France, a young girl, filled with humiliation by the fact, that her country was being trodden down by a foreign foe, imagined she heard heavenly voices calling upon her to lead her countrymen to victory against the invaders. She succeeded in impressing the French with her aspirations and was placed at the head of the troops. Victory perched upon the French banners at first, but later they were discomfitted, and the fearless leader was wounded and captured. She was adjudged worthy of death by her captors but instead of being compelled to face a firing squad, a more merciful form o fexecution, she was sentenced to one of the most cruel of all deaths—to be burned at the stake. Such was the sad fate of Joan of Arc, the Maid of Orleans, who had committed no greater offense than fighting for her country.

It is an ancient saying—"What we do unto others, others will do unto us," and another is appropriate—"The mills of the gods grind slowly, but they grind exceeding fine."

TALKING TO PARIS

The possibilities of wireless telegraphy are marvelous. The Seven Wonders of the World—The hanging gardens of Babylon, the Colossus at Rhodes, the Pyramids of Egypt, the Pharos at Alexandria, the temple of Diana at Ephesus, the statue of Jupiter at Olympia and the Mausoleum at Halicanassus—fade into insignificance when compared with the marvels of the twentieth century. The feat of talking through the air minus wires from Arlington, in Alexandria county, to Paris was accomplished yesterday and the world is rejoicing.

There are some now living who remember when Cyrus W. Field, Prof. S. F. B. Morse, and others who believed a telegraphic cable could be operated between New Foundland and Ireland were laughed at as visionaries. They succeeded in 1858 in showing this could be done and messages of greeting were exchanged between President Buchanan and Queen Victoria. The cable, however, worked only two weeks, but the civilized world went into ecstacies over the work of these pioneers in ocean telegraphy.

These men of genius supposed they had reached the ne plus ultra. They never dreamed that a time would come when messages would be sent through the air from continent to continent without wires.

TROUBLE AMONG COMMISSIONERS.

Several weeks ago the Gazette called attention to the fact that there was friction in the Police Board. In doing so we showed that this has been the case at times, unfortunately during the past half century, when the police force have been governed by Council committees and Police Boards.

J. E. Shinn, the secretary, who has devoted much of his time and labor to business connected with the police force of the city during the years he has been a commissioner, resigned on Wednesday night, giving as the reason that he found it impossible to please everybody. The members of the board, very properly, refused to accept the resignation and lose the services of their secretary.

Should Mr. Shinn succeed in performing his public duties without displeasing somebody, he would perform a feat others from time immemorial have found to be impossible.

William Hutton was a prominent manufacturer in England many years ago. He began life on the lowest rung of the ladder and during his early years was confronted with proverty and discouragement. By his industry and genius, he climbed to the top, where there is always room, and after a long life of usefulness died beloved and respected by all who knew him. At one time in his life Hutton's friends made him a justice of the peace, a position he filled with credit for years. His biographer in describing this chapter in his history says: "Mr. Hutton lacked one great essential in this calling—he was never able to decide a case to the perfect satisfaction of both litigants."

Mr. Shinn might take courage from the above.

PANAMA CANAL.

Officials at Zone Refuse to Hazard Guess as to End of Dredging.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Officials responsible for the Panama canal refuse to predict when the waterway will be reopened.

This is the significant statement contained in the latest issue of the Canal Record, the official publication of the Canal Zone government. Practically, therefore, it represents the view of Governor Goethals.

It is pointed out that up to October 13, the slide movement in the Gaillard cut had so continued that the material removed was about equal to the slide movement into the prism. This means that practically no progress is being made toward the opening of the canal.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Yesterday, the second day of the Orange County Fair, was clear. About 2,000 people saw the exhibits.

A report has reached Admiral Beatty, commandant of the Norfolk Navy Yard, that yacht Eclipse, on which six warrant officers of the interned German cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm left Norfolk October 11, was seen coming out of the Potomac river a day or two ago, heading for Baltimore.

Benjamin C. Cline, of Winchester, who sued the Cumberland Valley Railroad Company for $5,000 damages, claiming he was permanently injured when thrown against the steering post of his automobile while bumping over the railroad crossing at Clear Brook, has been given $2,500 by a jury. The railroad company took an appeal.

Robert Fowlkes, son of V. L. Fowlkes, of South Boston, narrawly averted the loss of an eye at the fair grounds a few nights ago. He, in company with a party of friends, was standing near a shooting gallery watching some friends try their luck at the clay pigeons, when in some unaccountable manner a bullet rebounded after having struck the object aimed at and struck him in the eye.

Horace G. Williams, for many years identified with the coal and lumber business of the South, died yesterday at his home in St. David's near Philadelphia. Mr. Williams at one time was president of the Portsmouth (Va.) Street Railway Company and for a number of years was receiver for the Beaver Creek Railroad and the Beaver Creek Lumber Company Virginia corporations. He was 54 years old.

The condition of Congressman Carter Glass of Virginia, who is taking a rest cure in Baltimore, was much improved yesterday. His physician said that the Congressman would be able to return to his desk at the opening of Congress. It was stated that Congressman Glass is not at Johns Hopkins Hospital nor at a hotel, as was at first supposed. He has gone to the suburbs, where he can have absolute quiet.

Mrs. Elizabeth Houck, daughter of Mrs. Josephine Minter, of Richmond, committed suicide early yesterday morning in Danville, by drinking two ounces of bromides. Domestic troubles are said to have been the cause of the suicide. J. W. Houck, the young woman's husband, instituted divorce proceedings in the Danville courts Wednesday and afterward, it is claimed, Mrs. Houck had threatened to take her life several times.

The returns of the Better Babies Contest, which was held at the Purcellville school last week under the auspices of the Woman's Home Companion, have been received. The following won prize: Lottie Polen, 7 month, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Polen, Hughesville: Albert Laycock, 14 month, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laycok, Hamilton; Dorothy Harley, 34 month, daughter of Mrs. Daisy Harley, Round Hill; Louis Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nichols, Purcellville.

The synod of Virginia, at Charlestown, W. Va., yesterday morning adopted the report, regarding Union Theological Seminary, at Richmond and commended the seminary and its work. W. C. Miller, secrtary and treasurer of the seminary, was heard with interest by the synod. The report of the committee on home missions showed that the missionaries of the synod have won more than one thousand persons to Christianity in the past year. The total contribution for home missions from the synod the past year was more than twenty thousand dollars, the churches of Richmond and Roanoke being especially liberal in gifts to this cause.

KILLED AMID WRECKAGE.

Mount Pleasant, Pa., Oct. 21.—Theodore Wible, jr., aged 22, of Greensburg, was killed and William Smith, aged 53, general superintendent of a Mount Pleasant glass company, was painfully hurt, when an automobile in which Smith was driving went over a 15-foot embankment here yesterday. Wible was pinned under the wreckage of the car.

THANKSGIVING DAY

President Sets Apart Thursday, November 25

The President yesterday issued the following proclamation:

"It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His many blessings and mercies to us as a nation. The year that is now drawing to a close since we last observed our day of national thanksgiving has been, while a year of discipline because of the mighty forces of war and of change which have disturbed the world, also a year of special blessing for us.

"Another year of peace has been vouchsafed us; another year in which not only to take thought of our duty to ourselves and to mankind, but also to adjust ourselves to the many responsibilities thrust upon us by a war which has involved almost the whole of Europe. We have been able to assert our rights and the rights of mankind without breach of friendship with the great nations with whom we have had to deal and while we have asserted rights we have been able also to perform duty and exercise privileges of succor and helpfulness which should serve to demonstrate our desire to make the offices of friendship the means of truly disinterested and unselfish service. Our ability to serve all who could avail themselves of our services in the midst of crises has been increased by a gracious Providence, by more and more abundant crops; our ample financial resources have enabled us to steady the markets of the world and facilitate necessary movements of commence which the war might otherwise have rendered impossible; and our people have come more and more to a sober realization of the part they have been called upon to play in a time when all the world is shaken by unparalleled distresses and disaster. The extraordinary circumstances of such a time have done much to quicken our national consciousness and deepen and confirm our confidence in the principles of peace and freedom by which we have always sought to be guided. Out of darkness and perplexity have come firmer counsels of policy and clearer perceptions of the essential welfare of the nation. We have prospered while other people were at war, but our prosperity has been vouchsafed us, we believe, only that we might the better perform the [illegible] which war rendered it impossible for them to perform.

"NOW, THEREFORE, I, WOODROW WILSON, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the 25th of November next as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, and invite the people throughout the land to cease from their wonted occupations and in their several homes and places of worship render thanks to Almighty God.

"IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington this twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fortieth.

"WOODROW WILSON."

"By the President:

"ROBERT LANSING, Secretary of State."

CAN BE FINED $100,000

Bills on Brewing Company's Alleged Misbranding.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 22.—Indictment covering 20 offenses were returned yesterday by the Federal Grand Jury against the Standard Brewing Company, of this city, for misbilling goods shipped from this city to Binghampton, N. Y. Each is purnishable by a fine of $5000, or $100,000 total and it is stated that the company will enter a plea of guilty.

It is alleged by the Federal agents that the company has been for years shipping goods to customers in New York State, taking advantage of the minimum car contents weight and minimum tariff on the carload, without reference to the number of barrels shipped or the actual tariff that should have been charged.

KILLED IN BIPLANE FALL

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 22.—J. Chauncey Redding, of Melrose, and Philip Bulman, of Malden, were killed yesterday by the fall of a biplane in which they were riding. Redding, who was the manager of the Saugus Aviation School, was operating the machine, Bulman was his mechanician. The accident apparently was due to the collapse of the wing framework.

Both men were buried to a depth of two feet in the soft mud of a marsh, and were dead when taken out.

FIND BODY IN BUSHES.

Murdered Man Identified as W. R. Hamilton, of Richmond.

Richmond, Oct. 21.—Close to the fence surrounding the Maymont estate Major James H. Dooley the body of W. R. Hamilton, 1925 Ashland St., was found yesterday afternoon by several hickory-nut hunters lying half-concealed in the grass bordering the extreme end of Meadow St. From the appearance of the body and the numerous wounds which Detective Sergeant Kellam and Coroner Taylor discovered on it, it is believed the man had been dead for several days. Up to an early hour last night police had been unable to secure any clue as to the identity of the murderer.

Hamilton, a painter, said to be about 51 years old, was struck several blows on the head with a heavy hickory stick. Any one of them would have been sufficient to have caused death, according to Coroner Taylor's statement, made after he had seen the stick, which then bore portions of the brain and a considerable amount of blood on it.

Not only was the man felled and perhaps killed by these blows, but he was stabbed in the neck with a large knife. This weapon Detective Kellam found a short distance from the stick. In addition to this, the murderer stuffed a piece of heavy cloth into the mouth of Hamilton, and jammed it so far down his throat that no portion remained outside the mouth. It was necessary to use a strong pair of pliers to draw the cloth from the man's mouth at the undertaking establishment last night.

DROWNING FOLLOWS FIGHT.

Member of Schooner's Crew Goes Overboard After a Struggle.

Laurel, Del. Oct. 22.—Thirty minutes after the schooner Eugie had left the Laurel Canning Company's wharf at noon Wednesday, James Price, of Washington, D. C., a member of the crew, was drowned in the Laurel River after a fight with Capt. William A. Simmons, of Baltimore. According to Flora Taylor and Harry Crockett, Capt. Simmons was at the wheel and ordered Price to do something. Instead of obeying, Price struck the Captain who, after a fierce struggle, overpowered and threw him overboard.

The Eugie was in tow, and it was several minutes before a boat was sent back. In the meantime officers who had been notified and hundreds of person were on the wharf. Capt. Simmons continued to Baltimore.

DENIES LOSS OF TRANSPORT

Berlin Declares Only Merchantmen Have Been Sunk in Baltic

Berlin, Oct., 21—Denial is given in a semi-official statement issued here to the Russian report that six German transports have been sunk in the Baltic.

Only commercial steamers, the statement says, have been sunk, and several of these have been sent to the bottom within Swdish territorial waters. Commercial traffic in the Baltic is said to be going on as usual.

During the period of October 1 to 15 it is stated 1,188 vessels left seven Baltic ports, exclusive of two important ports from which no statistics are available. The figures do not include coastal fishing vessels.

London. Oct. 21—Official announcement is made that the total number of British merchant vessels, exclusive of fishermen sunk by submarines to October 14 was 183.

The number of fishing vessels sunk to that time was 175.

FIFTY-TWO PERSONS KILLED.

Terrific Explosion in Munitions Factory in France.

Paris, Oct. 21.—Fifty-two persons are reported to have been killed in an explosion yesterday afternoon in a munitions factory in the Rue de Toblac, while 100 or more were injured.

Many of the victims were women workers in the factory which was wrecked, as were buildings in the vicinity.

An auto truck was being loaded when workmen accidentally dropped one grenade, causing an explosion which was followed by two others in quick succession.

The explosion destroyed not only the main factory, and other buildings connected with it, but every thing within a radius of 100 yards and damaged buildings 500 yards distant. The explosion was followed by fire, but the flames were soon extinguished.

Of the 41 bodies already recovered, 31 are those of women.

Reports that the explosion was the work of spies were absolutely denied.

TO GARNER NUTS FOR OIL.

German School Children to Assist in Conserving National Resources.

In furtherance of the suggestion that school children assist in conserving the national resources by a systematic collection of acorns, horse chestnuts and other nuts that ordinarily go to waste, for the sake of the oils they contain, the Prussian minister of agriculture has just issued a long and minute list of instructions and advice.

This includes a detailed account of the methods to be employed in preserving the nuts until a marketable supply has been collected. The uses to which each variety of nut can be put as a food for animals; the percentage of albuminous and oil contents of each variety, and finally, the market for the nuts and the prices that rule in it.

This market is the newly formed "war commission for plant and animal oils and fats," located in Berlin. Provided one works assiduously enough in collecting nuts there is a tidy bit of pocket money in the labor, for the commission offers 45 marks ($10.30) for 100 kilograms (220 pounds) of beechnuts, 55 marks for 100 kilograms of dried beechnuts and 140 marks for as many bassnut seeds. Dried acorns bring 19 marks per 100 kilograms, crushed acorns 32 marks, dried and shelled acorns 33 marks, dried horse chestnuts 15 marks and crushed and dried horse chestnuts 22 marks.

EXPRESS RATE HEARING

The State Corporation Commission at ten a. m. on Thursday, November fourth, at its offices in Richmond, will hear the application of the Express Companies operating in Virginia for permission to establish the same basis of charge for State traffic on shipments of less than 100 pounds that was ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission to govern Interstate business, and which will bring about an advance in the first-class rates of approximately 5 cents on shipments one to five pounds; four cents, six to twentynine pounds; three cents, thirty to forty nine pounds; two cents, fifty to seventy pounds and one cent over seventy to ninety nine pounds.

Second-class traffic will be affected only seventy-five per cent of the amount applying on first-class business. No change in rates per hundred pounds is involved.

CANDY SUPPLANTS LIQUOR

Milwaukee, Oct. 22.—Candy is supplanting liquor as a beverage to quench the thirst in Western dry States. Leonard Schlitz, nephew of Joseph Schlitz, founder of the famous Schlitz brewery in this city, and who recently resigned as a traveling representative for the brewery to become a candy manufacturer, declares that he discovered on his last trip through the Western States that the use of candy has grown almost double to the decrease in the use of intoxicants. As a result he was instrumental in the organization of a big corporation which will turn out the "sweet" product.

MATE'S AX IN HIS HEAD.

Timber Worker Not Expected to Survive Tragic Accident.

Abington, Pa., Oct. 22. —William Gilbert, a Willow Grove saw mill operative, is in Abington Memorial Hospital with a fractured skull, received when an ax penetrated his head while workingmen were cutting trees on a tract near Walnut Hill Monday. His condition is grave.

The accident happened near the same mill in which John H. Kibbs, the young Germantown man, was cut to pieces by a circular saw 10 days ago, Gilbert being part of the gang preparing trees for the mill.

Gilbert and another worker were chopping down a chestnut tree, when the ax in the hands of his mate either slipped or Gilbert stepped within range of its swing. The sharp blade penetrated his head and he dropped to the ground.

The ambulance from the Abington Memorial Hospital made a record run of the four miles to Walnut Hill.

FAITH IN PRESIDENT

Burleson Says Wilson Will Steer Ship of State Clear of Breakers

Both militarists and pence-at-any-price advocates were denounced by Postmaster General Burleson in addressing more than 500 first and second class postmasters at a banquet at the Raleigh Hotel Washington last night. Cheers resounded through the hall when Postmaster Burleson declared that President Wilson would ignore both classes by adopting "a safe and sane policy of prenaredness"

"There are those who are shouting and howling through this country for militarism, and there are those who would trust in the efficacy of prayer to keep us out of the war," said Mr. Burleson. "I do not know what is going to be in the President's message, but I know the man; I know his wisdom, and I believe that he will adopt a safe and sane policy that will protect our shores from an aggressor and prevent us from being dragged into the terrible struggle across the sea."

TRAGEDY ECLIPSES WAR

Mother and Brother Accused in Murder of Wealthy Paris Girl

Paris, Oct. 22—As a result of police investigations into the mysterious death last August of Marie Christophle, a young girl, belonging to one of the wealthiest families of Clermont-Ferrand. Jean Christophle her brother, and Madame Marguerite Christophle, the mother, were arrested Wednesday night. Because of the prominence of the family the latest development in the case has caused a sensation and the newspapers for the first time since the war began are devoting columns to a story of this kind.

During the night on which Marie Christophle met her death a fire occurred in her home. Neighbors rushed in and found the girl dead with wounds on her head. These injuries, it was explained at the Christophle home, were caused by the girl being struck by a part of the ceiling which was brought down by the fire. Sinister rumors, however, soon were current and a postmortem examination revealed that the wounds were caused by a sharp instrument. The theory that burglars committed the deed was then put forward. The Christophle family offered a large reward for the capture of the guilty persons and engaged a famous private detective of Paris—all wihout result.

On Wednesday Examining Magistrate Guerin summoned the mother and brother to his office. After an examination lasting for several hours he ordered the arrest of both.

DOG WATCHES MASTER'S BODY

Young Huntsman Meets Death in Woods Near Abingdon

Roanoke, Va., Oct. 21—The body of Zack Widener, twenty two years of age, was found yesterday near Abingdon, with a bullet hole through his head. He had been dead two days. Near the body of his master lay his dog who had accompanied Widener on a hunting trip.

It is supposed Widener was killed accidentally when his pistol struck a rock and was discharged.

The hound had "treed" a coon and was keeping watch between the coon in a cavity in the rocks and his dead master lying on the ground.

WOULD COERCE GREECE

Allies About to Make Naval Demonstration off Piraeus

Berlin Oct. 22—The Transocean News Bureau to-day gave out the following statement:

"According to telegrams received by Berlin newspapers from London, England and her allies, after the brutal violation of Greek neutrality, now contemplate coercive measures, in order to drag small and defenseless Greece against her will into war and force her to side with those who violated her independence and sovereignity.

"Apparently a naval demonstration off Piraeus and a blockade of the Greek coast is planned, in order to impose the foreigners' will upon the feeble state. How much the Greeks resent these attempts to crush their sovereignty appears from the fact that, according to unanimous press reports, cases of friction between the landing troops and the Greeks in Saloniki are frequent. The Greek officers are not on greeting terms with the invaders."

WOMEN AND CHILDREN FIGHT.

Campaign in Servia is Assuming Dreadful Character.

Rome, Oct. 21.—Information from German sources states that the campaign in Serbia is assuming a dreadful character. Private citizens, even women and children, are taking part in the fighting. In the neighborhood of Mount Bravana and Mount Sasulitch the battles are desperately contested. Many women, girls and boys were shot by the Austro-Germans while fighting side by side with the Serbian soldiers.

The Austro-Germans have not yet been able to take any Serbian prisoners and all Austro-German prisoners taken by the Serbians are wounded.

The stubborn defense maintained by the Serbians is taxing all the energies of Gen. von Mackensen, who has again asked for re-inforcements. Three new corps have already arrived in Serbia from Germany, but they merely suffice to fill the gaps

GYPSY QUEEN A TIGRESS

Man She Robbed Had to Use Fist to Regain Roll.

Pottstown, Pa., Oct. 21.—With his hands bitten and scratched as evidence of the furious struggle he had, W. A. Stead, of Philadelphia, a traveling man, who makes frequent visits to Pottstown, had an exciting encounter with a gypsy woman robber near Linfield yesterday.

While he was fixing a part on his automobile along a lonely road, the dark-skinned Amazon, came along and asked him for a match. While reaching under the car seat to get a box of them, the gypsy stole a big roll of bills from his pocket. She hastened away, and Stead, soon discovering his loss, pursued her.

The woman ran with marathon speed, and when Stead overtook her a struggle ensued. She bit and scratched like a tigress, and Stead finally had to knock her down to get his roll from her tightly clenched fist.
